

George Grenville to Lord Temple,

VII - 63

21

Wotton Aug: 1. 1761

Dear Brother,

I am extremely oblig'd to you for your kind offer to Tommy, which I hope is not attended with any Sort of inconvenience to you. I accept with ^{the greatest} pleasure this as I always shall do every mark of your regard & kindness to me or my children. My Wife joins her thanks to mine, & we both desire to add our affectionate compliments to Lady Temple.

I am ever Dear Brother
Your most affectionately yours
George Grenville

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on aged paper, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]