The Prince Regent
to
The Queen

April 9. 1814

My dearest Mother,

I trust that You will pardon me, if I submit to a line & that too I fear in a very trembling & hardly intelligible manner is so overwhelmed, & overflows so with gratitude to the Almighty for all his Providential support & Blessings unmerited, that I <sup>am</sup> really quite believe of the means of expressing myself, or of giving vent to my feelings which surpass all description, & indeed

I may add & say, almost all comprehen-sion. I trust my dearest Mother, that You will think that I have fulfilled & done my duty at least, & perhaps I may be vain enough to hope that You may feel a little proud of your Son. I will not delay the ~~return~~ a moment longer, as He will better B know of such happy & genuine Intelligence as I am capable of.

God for ever bless You, my ever dearest Mother, prays Your ever most affectionate & Loving Son.

Wm. Pitt Rivers
