Sir

May I beg the favour of you to communicate to His Royal Highness the Prince Regent the plan of a large Equestrian Picture, which I propose to execute on the principle of the one at Hampton Court. The subject of it - The late grand Review in Hyde Park, rendered more peculiarly interesting than any other ever witnessed in this Country, on account of the many illustrious personages who were present there, and the truly important circumstances under which they were assembled in London.

I own I feel myself impelled by an irresistible desire of conveying to posterity this commemorative of events equally glorious to His Royal Highness and the British Nation, but as The Prince Regent will properly be the principle personage in the picture, I cannot satisfactorily commend my design without His Royal Highness's gracious permission. —

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obed. ^{ble} hum. servt.

W. Beechey.
