

Summer of 1814

I thank you for your congratulatory address, that it has pleased Providence to restore the Monarchy of France, in the Person of its legitimate Sovereign His Majesty King Lewis the eighteenth which affords to Europe & the World the best prospects of a ^{due} restoration of order, as well as of the security of a solid & permanent Peace. I trust & I devoutly ^{pray} that through the same Divine influence, the eyes & Hearts of every Nation, State, Power, & of Mankind at large, ^{may} be opened as to take a just & timely warning

By the means which France ~~has~~ by her misguided & deluded ^{entire} Heads & Priests, ^{has} entailed upon herself, through down upon surrounding Nations, in a bloody & protracted War, unparalleled almost in the Annals of History ~~of~~ ~~the world~~, not as inconsiderable ^{as} ever our ~~miseries~~, as that once again happy Country, ^{has} been, ever
- tent, much more to over them, than ~~any~~ established in ^{the} ~~world~~ ^{of} ~~any~~ ^{other} ~~kingdom~~ ~~as well as in~~ ^{our} ~~own~~ ^{regular} ~~in~~ ^{the} ~~most~~ ^{regular} ~~in~~ ^{the} ~~most~~ ~~of~~ ~~any~~ ~~kind~~ ~~or~~ ~~in~~ ~~that~~ ~~of~~ ~~any~~ Legitimate, Princes or Sovereigns
