

Lord Eldon

25. Nov. 1814

21562

The Lord Chancellor, offering his very humble Duty, has the Honour to send to your Royal Highness a Commission for passing Bills on Saturday Afternoon, which it is extremely desireable should then pass, to receive your Royal Highness's Sign Manual, in the behalf of His Majesty, if your Royal Highness should graciously so please.

Friday 25 Nov. 1814

The Lord Chancellor humbly takes Leave to mention that the Commission, if your Royal Highness is pleased to authorize it, must be executed at the Stamp of Lords about three o Clock on Saturday Afternoon —

