

Lord Sidmouth
July 19. 1815.

Secret

Encloure.

A.A. No. 570

21736

Copy

Sir William Manners presents his Duty to His Royal Highness, The Prince Regent, and, in consequence of the recent Creation of eleven Peerages, most respectfully begs Leave to remind
His Royal Highness of the written Promise delivered to him by Colonel Mac Mahon eight Years since.

July 19 Bedford Street West end.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text on lined paper, possibly a letter or document.]