My dearest Brother

Ever happy to have an opportunity to recall myself to you without appearing indifferent, I cannot be silent at a moment in which a most interesting event seems to have put an end to the political career of Napoleon. Allow me to offer you my warm congratulations on this subject and to say how proud I feel that even our Enemies acknowledge the generosity of the British Nation. I hope my dear Brother that it will be in your power to unite prudence with lenity and to allow this extraordinary Man to exist as a

State Prisoners under your protection. Having once in your Hands Napoleon I trust that you will my dear Brother take into serious consideration what is to become of his family and not allow of their running all over the Continent to foment discord and distorbances in the Countries in which they take shelter.

The King desires me to present his best Compliments to you and I remain with genuine Affection

My dearest Brother

Your most Affectionate

Sister and attached Friend
