

Sir Wm Manners
July 24. 1815

21748

Sir William Manners presents his duty to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, & fearing that his former letter has miscarried, begs leave most respectfully again to remind his Royal Highness of the written promise delivered to him by Colonel Mac Mahon eight years ago, a promise, that he can have no doubt will be now performed in consequence of the recent creation of eleven peerages.

Oxford Street West end
July 24 1815

