S<sup>r</sup> Damesy

Friday night

Lord Castlereagh has the honor to say before your Royal Highness a Private Letter received from Sir C. Stuart with his answer, which under the unpleasant circumstances of the case, Lord Castlereagh presumes to lay before your Royal Highness with approbation

Lord Castlereagh has the satisfaction to Report to your Royal Highness that the whole of your Royal Highness's arrangements for the marriage of the Princess Charlotte have met the unanimous approbation of Parliament. There was no attempt made either to augment or diminish <sup>the Provision</sup> the £60,000 annual income with a gross sum of equal amount for outfit was cheerfully provided - The latter sum was supposed to furnish £10,000 for Jewels, £10,000 for Personal Equipage and £20,000 for Furniture, Plate &c

Mr. Brougham chose to mix the question of a Regency Bill, and absence from the Kingdom and the uses as well he did, as it enabled Lord C. to give a satisfactory contradiction to the Charges, which have been so industriously circulated on the latter
