Die Veneris 26^o. Maij 1820.

The Earl of Liverpool acquainted the House, That His Majesty having been informed of the Contents of the Bill Intit. "An Act for the Support of His Majesty's Household and of the Honor and Dignity of the Crown of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland," and being desirous at all Times to give the strongest and most substantial Proofs of His Attention and tender Regard to the Case and Welfare of His People; had Commanded him to acquaint their Lordships, that His Majesty was pleased to give His Consent, that their Lordships may proceed upon the said Bill, as now framed, in such manner as they shall think fit.

Ordered, Nemine Dissentiente, by the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament Assembled, That an humble Address be presented to His Majesty to return our most grateful Thanks to His Majesty, for graciously acquainting acquainting us with His Royal Consent, that this House may proceed upon the said Bill, as now framed, in such manner as they shall think fit.

To assure His Majesty that this early attention to the Case and Welfare of His People, expressed in a manner so gracious, and founded on Principles so generous, must imprint on the Mind of every British Subject the most Loyal and Ardent Affection towards His Majesty; And that this House begs leave most humbly to express their entire Conviction that the same Considerations which have led His Majesty to make this most gracious Communication will invariably direct Him in the Promotion of the Happiness and Prosperity of an affectionate and Loyal People.

Ordered, That the said Address be presented to His Majesty by The Lords with White Staves.

Henry Cooper. Dep. Cler. Parliament.
