

The King to Marg^d. Wellesley
June 1820.

Desiring His Lordship
to be at Carlton House on the 21st.

Most secret & confidential

Dear Wellesley,

22464

Pray come & breakfast here tomorrow morning at 8th with Blomfield, at nine o'clock. Come on foot & enter through the stables by the gate, where the sentinels are, the request to Spring Garden Passages. I want your private ^{a your support,} advice, as an old & attached friend, & there is much to be considered to you. You will ask for Blomfield, who will be ready & quite happy to reassure you, but not necessary then yours always sincerely

C. St.
Sun^d 11th
June 1820.

J.B.
Q

P.S.

You will understand me I am sure, when I stop, at these few words of my old friend
"from top continues, & tantum
"negatio solum. Ver. sat