The King's Speech

2A NO 935

July 1 [1891]

The King assents to the proposal of L<sup>d</sup> L<sup>c</sup> that the ~~parliament~~ the Government should at present remain without any alteration.

The King however desires not to be misunderstood; The King is no proscriber of persons, <sup>and the</sup> King entertains no private feeling but what is consistent with that Principle of Duty which ~~exists~~ <sup>exists</sup> will ever make him the guardian of his Constituent
