Lord Liverpool to
The King (Resignation of
The Marquis of Nufford, Lord Chamberlain)
July 24th 1821.

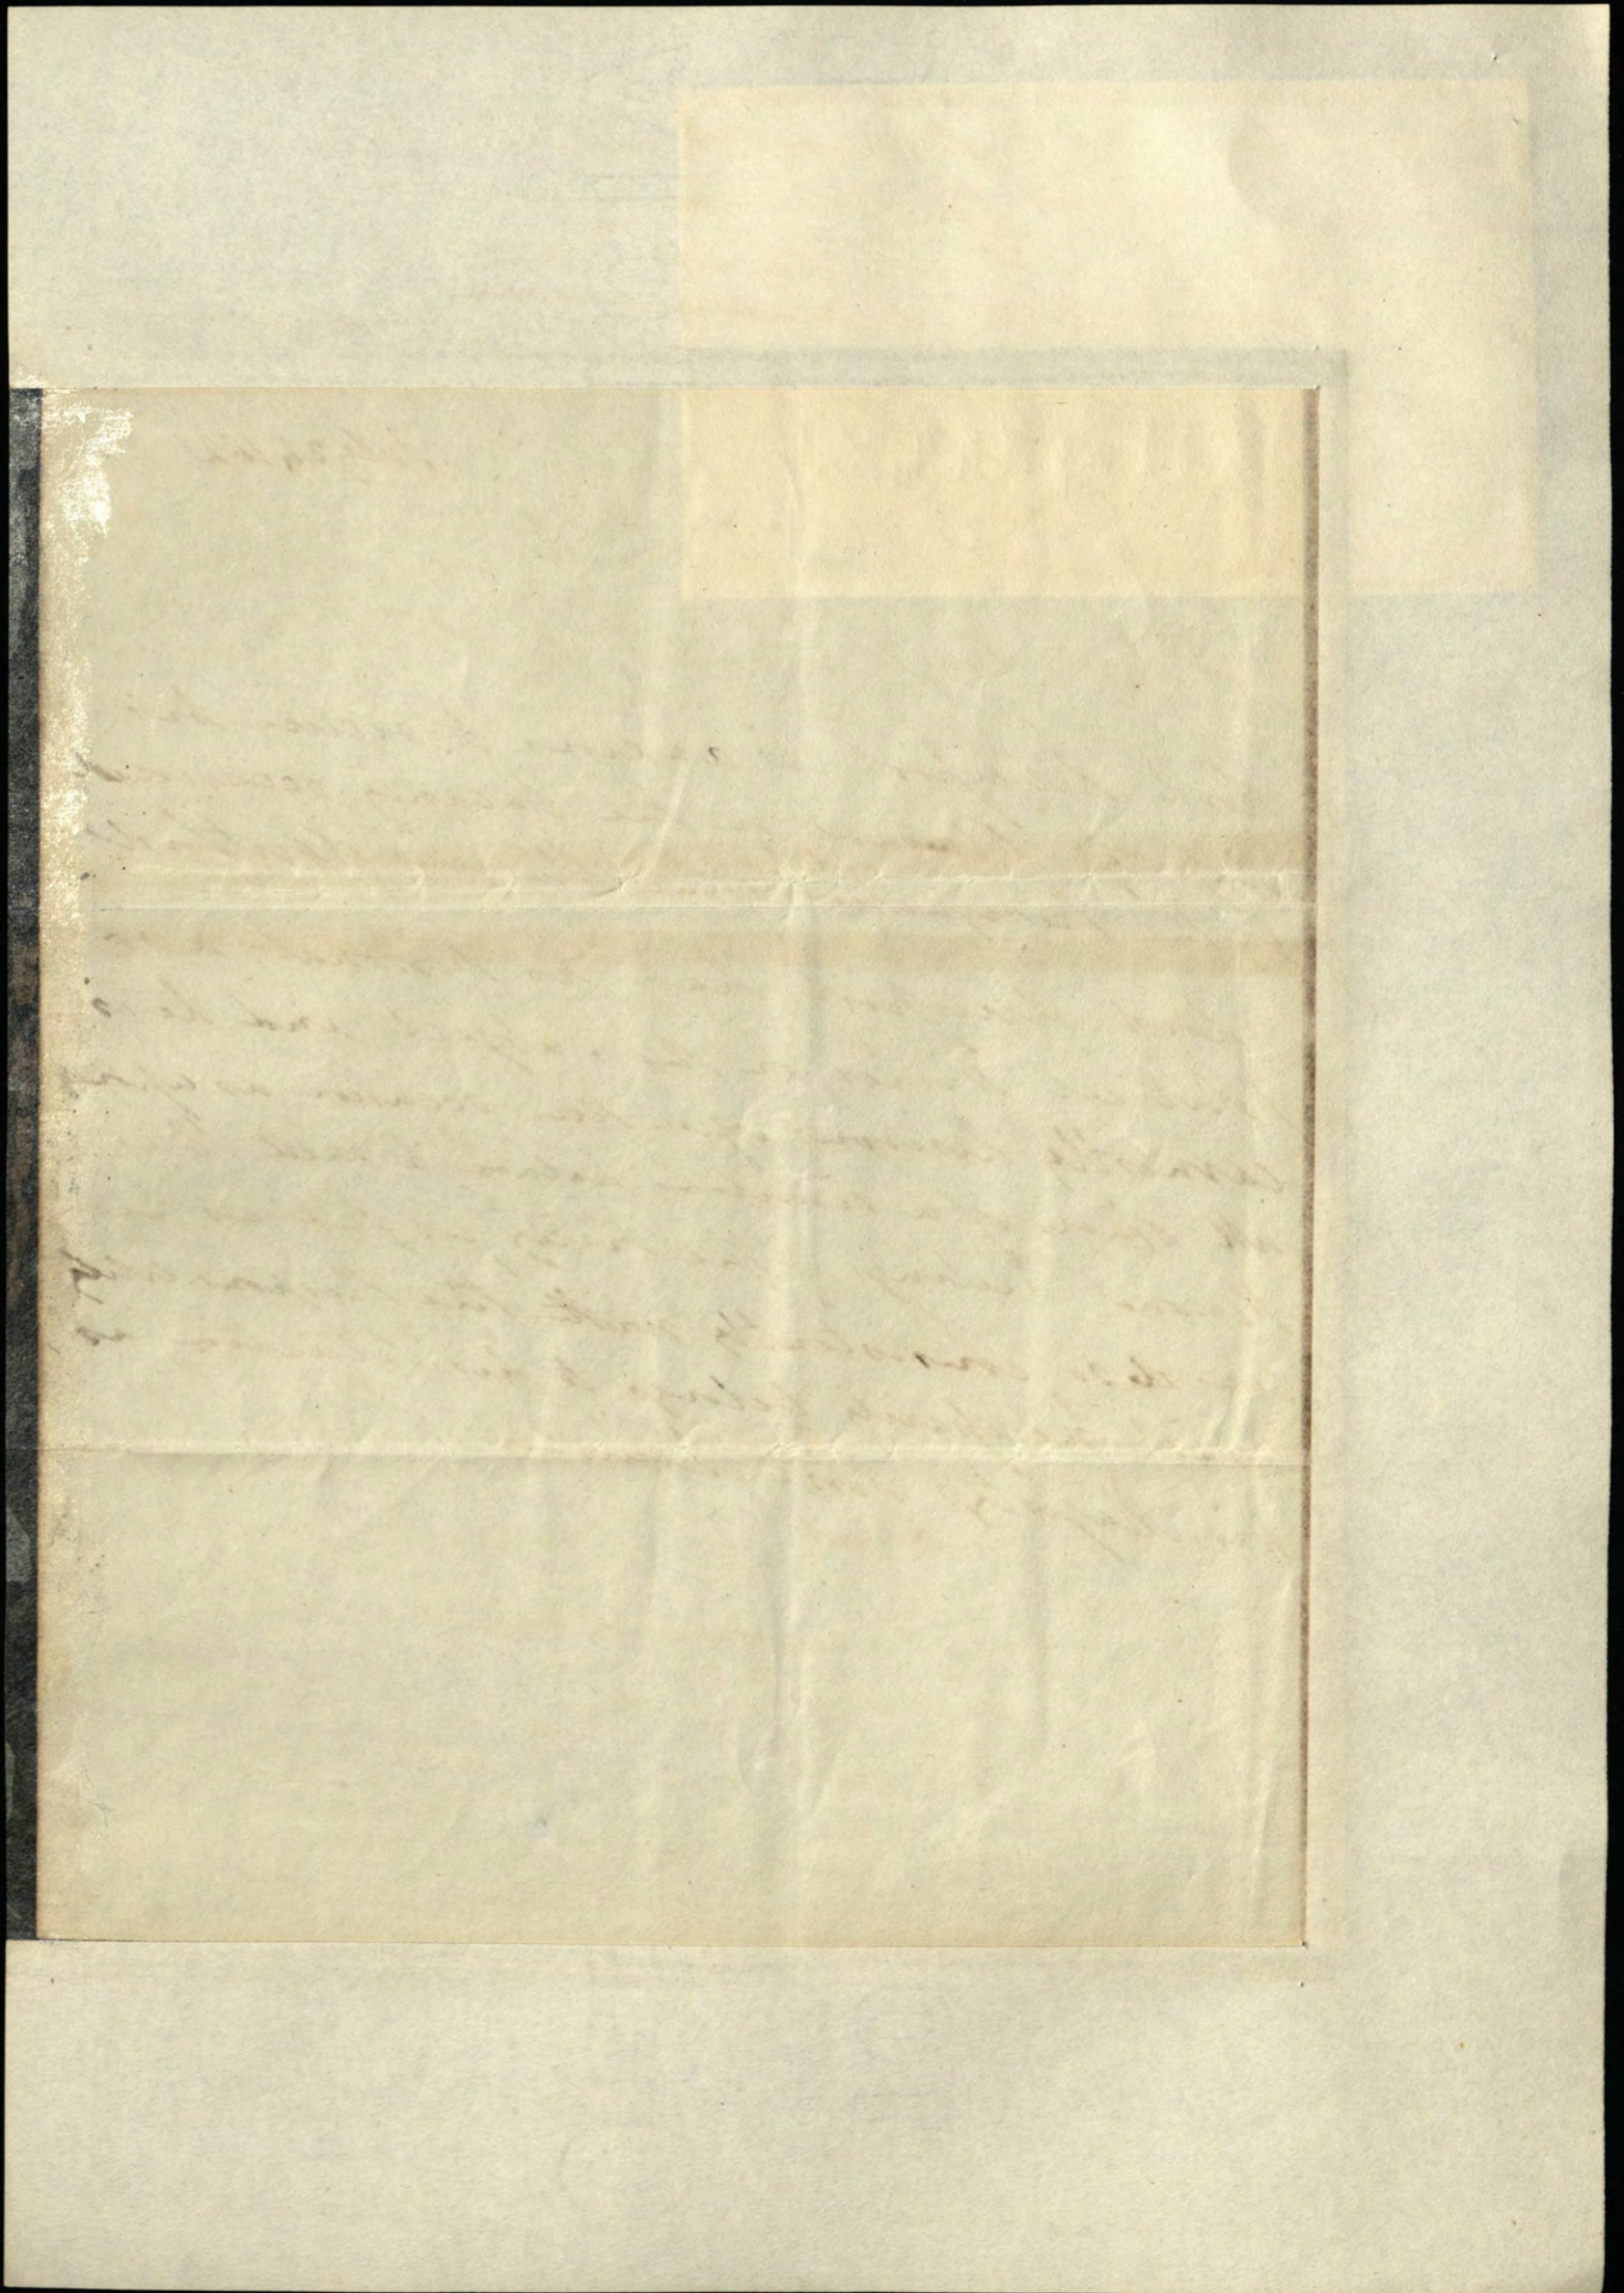

A.A. No. 945

July 24 1821

22688

Lord Liverpool is anxious to secure His Majesty's pleasure, on the vacancy occasioned by the Resignation of the Marquis of Nufford.

Lord Liverpool has no personal or political wishes, on the subject, and he is earnestly desirous upon this occasion, as upon all others of a similar nature, to meet the personal feelings of the King, as far as he can do so, consistently with the responsibility which necessarily belongs to his situation, as His Majesty's first Minister.

A. A. No. 946

22689

The King has received Lord Liverpool's communication, which was submitted to Him, last night, by Mr. Benjamin Bloomfield.

The King desires Lord Liverpool distinctly to understand, that whatever appointments the King may think proper to make in his own Family, they are to be considered as quite independent of the consent of any Minister whatever; & that Lord Liverpool must be aware, ~~that~~ ^{that} the present Government
