St James's Sq
Monday Night

Lord Lonsdale has the Honor to acquaint your Majesty, that the Duke of Devonshire's renouncing Bill was Read a 8th June the same was sent to the Lords

Mr. Bromfield took this occasion of endeavouring to satisfy the Queens Dow Addressers for not sooner bringing forward Her Majestys Claim of Right, to participate in the Honors of the Coronation, Lord Lonsdale was enabled fully to explain & satisfy the Courage that your Majestys Lords had proposed upon the occasion. It is shewn, that the delay in replying to the Queens Memorial was not only of 5th June, whereas 16 days were suffered by the necessities of business to elapse between the 9th of June, the date of the Proclamation ^{of the} passing the 19th for holding the Coronation on the 25th ult, when the Queens first Removal bears date -

Lord L. further stated, that the Removal to your Majesty in Council, praying to be heard by Council, was not presented this day, upon which your Majesty, as matter of Indulgence, but not of Right, has been pleased to signify your pleasure, that the Prayers should be heard accordingly

The Case stands as your Majesty could wish before the House - The Rights ^{on the part of your Majesty} have been maintained - The Queens Petitioners refused, subject to the Decision of Right, and the Beams, of Council granted as matter of Indulgence,
