

Dr. to Underwood and Doyle,

at their compound Metal Lash and Balcony Railing Manufactory,
No. 228, High Holborn, London.

Also Importers of German & Dutch Glass.

For Work done at The Pavillion Brighton,
(By Order of Mr. Crace,

1803

Sept. 28

A Chinese Lamp with Glass Shade & Ornamental Stand for Do - Carved Gats } at Pavilion, at Top - Borders Glaz'd with Stained } painted Glass & Plate Glass bottom 10" <sup>14</sup> high } £31-10-0

" " 2 Cases for Do & Deal to pack ----- 3-0-0
Cartage to the Inn Booking ----- " 8-0

Oct. 20 - 3 Chinese Lamps with Glass Shades and } at Pavilion, Ornamental Stands to Do - Carved Gats }
at Top - without Glass ----- } £3-11-0

" " 2 Cases for Lamps & 3 Ditto for Stands } and Deal to Pack ----- } 8-10-0

Cartage to the Inn Booking ----- " 12-0

Dec. 21 - 4 No. 1 Iron Columns with Carved Gats - }
Brass Chains & Hooks to Do to Support Lamps } 23-2-0
C 3-10-0 ea.

Three of these brought from Crace's house Case for Ditto ----- 1-10-0 on the day of inspection Cartage to the Inn Booking ----- " 4-0

£ 122-19-0

this Bill found right
on the day of Inspection
with the remarks above
made in the body of it

Benj<sup>n</sup> Gusterson

Underwood & Doyle
per sample

Sept 122.19.6
122.17.6

1803

Furniture