

60 Berners St. byford St.

March 7th 1830.

Sir,

Among the many objects of importance which claim your attention, you may possibly have forgotten a very trifling subject, relative to which, I took the liberty of addressing you some time ago. It related to a small equestrian portrait of His Grace The Duke of Wellington, with which I accompanied my letter. In so doing, I acted under the impression (perhaps erroneously) that in the very kind manner with which you acquainted me with the failure of a former effort, you did not mean, or wish, to discourage me in all future hopes, or attempts of the kind. My present object is respectfully to beg the favor of some intimation for my guidance, so that if I have done wrong in sending the picture, I may, as far as possible repair my error, or if more fortunate.

I may still be permitted to hope that something may result favourable to

Sir,

Your most obedient & most humble servant

John Doyle.

Dear Sir William

You gave me the first cheering Account of the Accents have been favorable

Our Exhibition is that in the Throne Room that of the King of France Perhaps you would be kind enough at a proper opportunity to mention this to the King and let me know the result as soon as you conveniently can. If you mention me to the King I beg you will present my most humble Duty and

Mr. William,

The exertions I am now making with my Great work place me under the necessity of requesting your assistance of the 1000<sup>l</sup>. You were so kind to send me 2 months since I paid 250<sup>l</sup> to Messrs Braithwaite for Machinery to turn the Belt of the Great Base which now weighs nearly 30 Tons. That work it

26603 in proper I should declare to you completed in case you should desire to afford my insurance upon it. I apprehend no danger but in case of any accident it would be impracticable to renew it.

I have hitherto been very successful in my sailing I had hoped the honor of a visit from you to see my boat, at this moment I could not recommend it as the Head & Sails of the Stone cannot now be replaced Smith's

As my expenses must necessarily be very heavy for the first 15 months I request you to extend your favor to 2000 & 2500

I have the honor to be Yours Obedient Servant

money allow me to hope you will extend
