Dear Sir

I am desired by Colonel Bloomfield to send in my full account for the Service.
 The same will be found correct, as the Colonel has received a similar one the 10th of April last.
 I dare flatter myself he or Colonel Mr. Mahon will speak with you about the payment — Omit as at present £200 — or 300 can be of the greatest service to me, I shall take the liberty of calling one morning to hear if I can be accommodated with this little sum.

I remain

Dear Sir

Yours obedient servant

Dear Sir

Last night on my return from the country I was favored with your polite Note, of the first instant - in which I am informed of the difficulty to receive any account at this moment. - But I am sure Colonel W^{ch} Mahon or Bloomfield will endeavor to accommodate me as on a former occasion when 1807 I was paid for their

Their acceptance of £41. which money was for several Pictures, — before I had yet the honor to belong to His Royal Highness's Privy Establishment, as Cabinet or Historical Painter.

Colonel M^r. Mahon or Bloomfield therefore can easily explain that there is no mistake on my part, of those bills paid by the Privy Treasurer.

I remain

Sir

The enclosed is an account for some Pictures which I had the honor of executing for his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales.
The very distressing circumstances under which I am impelled to the liberty of troubling you have I believe been explain'd to you by Mr Gaskoin and I will not trespass on your time with a repetition of them, but beg to assure you that my feelings will be those of the sincerest gratitude if through your kind interference I should be relieved from my present troubles by the payment of the ^{sum} due to me. I am Sir your
