

Lord Buntington
January 19. 1770

2763

War Office 19. Jan: 1770
part 4 o'Clock.

I have seen General Harvey, who (tho' better and as Mr. Adair thinks now in a good way) is not to be entrusted for his own sake with much business; but he would keep the Papers your majesty was pleas'd to send me this morning, & will return them to me soon, with any remarks or opinions which shall occur to him. I hope I shall be able with other good assistance to get thro' the business of the present important moment, without running the risk of General Harvey's relapse by consulting him too often.

The

The Letter herewith inclosed I ordered to send to your Majesty as the Duke of Athol desires you may see it immediately. I also inclose the letter from me which has occasioned this answer.

Barrington.

I will bring the Papers entrusted to me by your Majesty

this morning, to St. James on Wednesday:

No man living but General Hawley shall know
the contents of them.
