Sir,

Being on the eve of my departure from England I take the liberty to solicit that you will have the goodness to lay before his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales a small account which I here inclose, relative to a few Articles which his Royal Highness was pleased to honor with his approbation in May 1801.

I should not have presumed to apply for the amount of this little sum had it not been on the occasion of my quitting this Country, and that at a time when from various disappointments I am forced to collect all that I can to enable me to defray the expence of a long journey on the Continent.

Should it be in your power to lay my most humble and dutiful respects at the feet of his Royal Highness, I should feel highly honored, and ever acknowledge the utmost obligation to you.

I am, Sir, with the greatest esteem and consideration
