

Ld North

March 16. 1770. relates a conversation between Ld. Chatham
& the Duke of Northumberland then

2823

Ld North has the honour of writing in the Box for his Majesty's perusal Mr Edm's narrative of two conversations he has had today; Ld North has heard ^{from} ~~that~~ the D. of Northumberland that Ld Chatham's conversation is that he wishes to speak to his Majesty in order that his plans may not be misrepesented, that he expects to be a confidential Minister, that he must have the appearance of forming the Ministry. That, the rest important offices being filled with efficient men, L^d Chatham's advice would be in every thing to attend to the wishes of her Majesty
