

Ld. North

Thursday (sic) - i.e. Year 19 This or H. W.'s letter following up appears to be wrongly dated.

2833

Lord North has the honour of transmitting to his Majesty an account of another conversation between L. J.
& Mr Eden by it appears that there is still ^{some} probability of having the assistance of Lord Chatham & his friends. but L. J. Ch. must be the head of any administration in which he acts & it would be vain & useless to expect him on any other footing

His speech & L^d Melbourne's promise a very fair & handsome opportunity of applying to them, & unless they come the country will be undone. Every moment that the Treaty is delay'd will enable them to rise higher in their demands, because every moment must increase the difficulties of the present system

Thursday.
