Somerset Place 5th August 1812.

Sir

After writing to You on the 30th ult^o, a similar Bill for Your Work, called Family Antiquity, on behalf of the Assignees of the Publishers, Mess^{rs} Reynolds & Grace, was forwarded to me from Carlton House; and in consequence of my questioning the propriety of their demand, their Agent, M^r Bellamy of Grays Inn Lane, has this Morning exhibited to me a Release executed by You to Reynolds & Grace, in respect to the right in this Work, and the Commission of their subsequent Bankruptcy, together with his own appointment from the Assignees for collecting the Bankrupt's effects. Under such circumstances I shall be at a loss to account for Your own demand, unless I am to understand it as being made on behalf of the Assignees, without knowledge of their Appointment of a Receiver

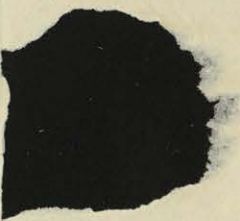

I am

Sir

Your most obed^t Servant
