Buryland April 16
1821.

My Dear Sir,

Having about 40 Visitors here Yesterday & being otherwise much engaged I took your letter to the Rev. Mr. Freeman to answer it from thence, but I was prevented so during & this day there have been constant Interruptions until this moment.

Surgey of the Duchy of Cornwall Office is the Individual to whom I have been referred by Sir Benjamin Blount for annual sundry Payments which he has made and undertaken to make in future, but the Payments on Account of the Debts Gendrick A. Bernard Esq his are not of the number & Mr B. Blomfield told me that he would speak to me respecting them and make some specific arrangements

I should apprehend however from Mr Gray's Offer that he may have had some Communication with Mr B. Blomfield on the Subject & therefore feels authorized to put the Library Accounts in regular course of Payment. This would certainly be very desirable, but after what has passed and require such Communication authorizing it. At all Events I would recommend

From sending the Quarterly Accounts to Mr Gray & accompany them by this Letter which will show him how the Question stands and enable him to decide upon the Course to be taken.

I hope you have not suffered from your kind visit to the last Sunday. I have written this day as I must come to Town tomorrow & might be absent if you had called.

In haste, my Dear Sir

Most sincerely Yours

W. Douglas

Sir Herbert
Taylor
