Most humbly submitted to His Majesty The proposed Courts for His Majesty's going to Lochath Camp, and return to the Queen's House.

If His Majesty approves the same number of Horse Guards & Grenadiers may be ordered to Maudstone & Leeds Castle, as was ordered to Rumford Brentwood & Thornodon Place.

and if His Majesty should not think it necessary to send an equal Detachment to Sevenoaks & Montcal, an officer with sister

Sixteen of the Horse Guards, and eight Grenadiers may be sufficient.

The Surveyor (Angel) is gone to day to Leeds Castle, to see what is wanting and to make the necessary Arrangement, he will provide every thing, Plate & Linnen excepted and will report what may be requisite of those Articles, which need not be sent 'til the later end of next week.
