H.R.H. The Prince of Wales, having been pleased to appoint Us His Trustees for the management of His Affairs, We have in the execution of Our Duty applied Ourselves (in Justice to the Creditors) to the curtailing as much expence, in H.R.H.'s establishment as possible. It occurs to Us that Eminent as you are in your Profession, The Salary hitherto paid you by H.R.H., can be no great object to You; & we flatter Ourselves, that you will not feel yourself personally aggrieved, at the necessity we find ourselves Under, to discontinue the future Payment of it.

We are, with great Respect

Particulars of the State of His Royal Highness's Receipts and Expenditure.

The Abstract of which was by order delivered to M^r. Sherridan y^e. 26th April 1787. —

It having been represented to me, that there ~~is~~ is a Sum or Sums of Money, resting in your Hands, which was intended to have been appropriated, to the continuance of a temporary Allowance to the Rev^d. Mr. Arnald, my late Sub Preceptor, until He should have ~~received~~ ^{obtained} some additional Dignity, or Provision in the Church; But as the unhappy Situation of that Gentleman, precludes any prospect of His future promotion; As there has not been any application made to me, By His Relations, or Trustees for the continuance of any Allowance for the Use of the said Mr. Arnald; And as the present Income received on His Acc^t. by the Trustee, or Trustees must be greatly superior, to the Expenses of His comfortable Support; I do hereby Authorize, and Direct you to Pay such Sum or Sums of Money now in your Possession - into the Hands of Henry Lytle Esq. - Col^o. Gen^l. Lake. & Col^o. Gen^l. J. Hulce Inspectors of Treasury - To the End that the said Money may be applied in Aid of the Fund established for the liquidation of my Debts. & to-

The utmost attention has been paid in Estimating the probable amount in this Department, and the Commissioner of the Stables has reduced it as low as possible, but is apprehensive that the sum proposed will by no means be found sufficient for the purpose, as the adhering to any Estimate must always depend upon a great variety of accidents & contingences, which it is impossible to foresee or provide for in this Branch of H. R. Highnesses Expenditure. It is also to be observed that under the Head of Stables are included various articles, such as Boardwages & Liveries to Footmen &c &c in the same manner as in His Majesty's Stables, which do not properly seem to belong to that Department.

Supposition of a Considerable reduction in many of the most material articles of His Royal Highnesses Expenditure, otherwise they should not conceive themselves Justified in supposing that the amount here stated would answer the whole of His Royal Highnesses Establishment and Expences, or that they would accomplish the Earnest desire. His Royal Highness has Expressed, that every part of His Household should be managed with such attention and Economy as shall prevent the risque of incurring Debts in future. at the same time they conceive it their Duty to observe, that there must probably become Articles of unforeseen & precarious Expence which it is not in their power to Class under any particular Head or in any distinct manner ^{to} advert it.

This article contains omissions in the last payment of the Princes Debts, & were applied for to y^e. Treasury as soon as they were discovered some years ago but no notice has ever been taken of that application since, when an arrear of Int^l. had grown upon it.

This sum was owing at the time the debts were paid and was an arrear from the time the statement of the debt was made in 1706. to the time they were paid in 1787 & y^e. Int^l. on the whole, ever since has much diminished the Princes income.

The loans attempted to be made in order to discharge the foregoing incumbrances, had always failed; which together with some Premiums advanced, makes up this article of Expenditure.

These Bills had been allowed to grow into this like, upon the supposition that the works of Carlton House, were proceeding under the sanction of the vote of Parliament, & so considered by all those employed on it. The Princes would have suspended their progress had they judged otherwise, long ago, & as he has done ever since he knew that Parliament had discontinued their supply. This part of the debt Mr. W. has been betrayed into, except in the purchase of the Houses which he considered as a necessary part of the public work & would therefore be paid for.

The expenses on this head cannot possibly recur they being for the most part confined to solid expenditures in completing the necessary services of plate & ornamental Jewels. of the order of the garter with sword & buckles, as well as a present to the Duchess of York on her Marriage, & a Star to the Duke of Clarence on his return from service in y^e.
