Richmond House
Tuesday morning

Gen: Conway with his most humble Duty informs his Majesty that the House sat till between Two & Three this morning.
There was no Division, & scarce anything that could properly be call'd a Debate, as the Resolution propos'd was generally approv'd & the Amendment mov'd till one in the morning as near as can be remember'd; That was for leaving out the last words of the Resolution. (In all cases whatsoever.) Objected to by Mr. Barré & Mr. Pitt, but which would not have had four voices against them as it's imagin'd if the Committee had been divided. The inclos'd is a list of the Speakers, among whom Mr. Gordon, Mr. Hyslop, & Mr. Ed: Burke particularly distinguish'd themselves. — Gen: Conway humbly hopes his Majesty will forgive his having asked for the List of Speakers, he will endeavour to recover it.

only One Resolution was passed & the House is ad-journ'd till tomorrow.
