

My dear Mr. [unclear]

The contents of this letter is on a subject very near & dear to my feelings. - You may remember that I wrote to you sometime since, respecting I believe Longham, the younger Son of my very dear & esteemed friend Mr. [unclear]. - This boy is now about eighteen years of age, a ~~very~~ <sup>possessing</sup> fine & agreeable person, with ~~the most~~ <sup>of the</sup> pleasing & correct manners the sweetest disposition, & altogether a fine noble - honorable & ~~seem~~ creature; full of good sense & propriety conduct with a promise of considerable abilities - <sup>of my great affection</sup> under these circumstances, independent ~~of parents~~ <sup>of his</sup> ~~parents~~, ~~having~~, as I have seen a good deal of this dear Boy, during my residence at Windsor, you will not be surprised, with my warmth of disposition, that I am become very much attached to him, & it is <sup>an</sup> ~~it~~ <sup>amusing</sup> & delightful feeling to me. to have the opportunity of superintending & directing his education & ~~instructing~~

I often <sup>very</sup> after <sup>with</sup> <sup>by</sup> <sup>the</sup> <sup>was</sup> <sup>my</sup> <sup>own</sup> San -

know what I propose is, that you should take him <sup>into your family</sup> as an attaché, for the purpose of his learning the German Language & such other <sup>to continue</sup> studies as will hereafter be settled. - I propose that your Secretary Col. <sup>now</sup> Sir J.
Reynolds, should watch over him, I take care that he <sup>may be</sup> in no way exposed, to what might be injurious to him -

~~to go~~ He is at present a Lieut in the Blues - a Commission that the Duke of Buckingham provided for him, but do not intend him to go on with the army, & when

He ~~is~~ has been with you about eight months I shall in all probability place him as an attaché at Berlin, with Dr. <sup>Chunwell</sup> -

I have not chosen to send him over with Col. Reynolds, before apprising you of my wishes, but about the last week in February I shall deliver ~~into~~ him ~~into~~ your hands, by sending over my confidential & faithful friend Sir W. H. with him, who will explain I shall have the comfort of knowing, will explain all my wishes on this subject & ~~as far as whatever else I may desire~~ ~~my thing else that I may desire~~ to say to you relative to other to say to you - matters -

my dear Mother has need I say, I have much I shall feel obliged ~~my dear Mother~~ to you & the Drs, by entering into all my feelings on this occasion I will only add, if you would rather have Ann out of the House let Dr Col Reynett take a coach convenient for taking her near you, & you must contrive that Reynett lives with Ann, the expense of which I have directed Sir Wm to be charge of
