

M<sup>r</sup>. Jenkinson

Carl. Street Nov<sup>r</sup> 28th 1779 7<sup>o</sup> 15. p. 11.

3613

I think it might be send your Majesty the Inclosed Letter from Mr Robinson, by which your Majesty will see what prodand the unpleasant Experience which you had with Lord North yesterday. your Majesty may be assured that if I can render any Service by having open & confidential Conversations with Lord North, I will be ready at all times to have them. I look upon all this as nothing permanent, but as a Disease of the Mind, which goes & comes, & which as long as it lasts, is very unpleasant to those, who have any thing

Nothing to do with Him.

From Your Majesty's

Dutyful Subject

Carl W. ...

Nov. 24th 1779

L. Conkerson

$\frac{1}{4}$  past 11.