

Edward, Duke of York to

His Majesty George
the Third

Tuesday
Feb. 18
1766

Intimation of the Duke of Bedford
as to the Stamp Act &c

362

S^r

I have this moment the honour of receiving your Majesty's commands. It is true the D. of Bedford's intimation was nominally with regard to the Stamp act, but may be taken in a more extended sense, if your Majesty chooses to consider it in that light I shall not see the D. of Bedford till at the House of Lords tomorrow - I propose myself the pleasure of attending your Majesty at the usual riding hour, and shall most punctually obey whatever commands your Majesty may then honour me with remaining S^r

your Majesty's

York House
Tuesday 9 o'clock AM.

most affectionate Brother & Faithful Subject
Edward.

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and mirroring.]