

Lord North
Downing Street Dec. 1th 1774

3622

Lord North has the honour of proposing to his Majesty, if agreeable to give the Staff of Treasurer of the Household to Lord Onslow, & that of Comptroller to Sir Richard Worsley. He will have the honour of mentioning some other appointments for the consideration of his Majesty, but Sir Richard wishes to vacate his seat today, that he may offer himself Candidate for Hampshire tomorrow at the County meeting.

Leaving home. Wednesday morning.
