

A. M. to Lord North

3625

Queen's House Dec<sup>r</sup> 1st 1774.
m
30 p. 10. PM.

Lord North Since the receipt of your account of the sailors having been voted in the Committee of Supply this day without a Division, I have received the Irish letters which shew that there is an end of all Government in that Country, the Lord Lieutenant seems to feel himself that a successor is the most natural consequence.

1 Dec 1979