

His Majesty ever desirous of promoting the Welfare and Happiness of His Dominions thinks it behoves every one actuated by any attachment to his Country, to cast aside all private pique and animosity and cordially unite in the Service of the State.
 He therefore has authorized me to declare that He is willing to cast aside any events that may have displeas'd Him, and to admit into His confidence and Service those who will join with part of his present Ministry in forming one and more enlarged Plan, provided it be understood that every means are to be employed to keep the Empire entire, to prosecute the present just and unprovoked War in all its branches with the utmost rigour, and that #no blame be laid on any past measures.

a correct Copy of this paper deliver'd Nov. 12th 1779 to the Chancellor, which he return'd on the 23<sup>d</sup>. without having taken any step from the intension of D. North, a fresh Copy sent to the Chancellor Dec. 3<sup>d</sup>.

# Got from His remembrance any Men of public spirit or talents

# His Majesty's past Measures to be treated with proper respect.

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and bleed-through.]

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and bleed-through.]