Chancellor Dec. 3<sup>d</sup> 1779.

3628

His Majesty ever desirous of promoting the Welfare and Happiness of His Dominions, thinks it behoves everyone actuated by any Attachment to his Country, to cast aside all private pique and animosity, and cordially unite in the Service of the State.

He therefore is willing to blot from His remembrance any events that may have displeased Him, and to admit into His confidence and Service, any Men of Public Spirit and Talents, who will join with part of His present Ministry, in forming One on a more enlarged plan; provided it be understood that every means are to be employed to keep the Empire entire, to prosecute the present just and unprovoked War in all its branches with the utmost vigour, and that His Majesty's past Measures be treated with proper respect.
