By some mistake of a servant though Ld. North's box enclosing the list of Speakers in Yesterday's Debate was delivered at one in the Morning, yet it was not brought into my Room with the Votes till after I went out this Morning, as soon coming home I have found it on my table. I am pleas'd with the Majority, though highly incens'd at the personal conduct of Mr. Macdonald whose dis-appointment at the East India House add'd to the conduct of his father in Law is no excuse for his behaviour
