My Dear Lady Charlotte. I beg You will deliver ~~that~~ <sup>to</sup> the Prince of Wales the Pocket Book. Wherein I have put a Letter which You will open and read unto him alone, Desiring him to remember the Contents thereof, but not to mention it to any Body I must beg the same of You as my intention is not to shine but to do real good, and after all not to have any thing to reproach myself with hereafter.

Charlotte.

The Book opens on the left Side of the Lock.
