

State of the Equipment of His Majesty's Ships under the Command of Admiral Sir George Rodney the 10th Decr. 1779.

At Spithead

Sandwich
 Royal George
 Ajax
 Throesbury
 Montagu
 Phoenix
 Pegasus
 Greyhound
 Porcupine Triton
 Andromeda
 Acornet

These Ships are in all respects ready for sea

Prince George
 Alcide
 Cumberland
 America
 Bedford
 Colboden
 Edgar Alfred
 Monarch
 Terrible

Want a great part of their Provisions, and some Stores; but if the Weather is Moderate will be Victualled by Sunday or Monday at farthest.

Convent
 Seaford

Their Sails Standing and Running Rigging much worn and decayed, very leaky in their Decks and Upperworks, ordered to be completed with Provisions from the Duke and Valiant

In the Harbour

Peart

Is to get her Guns in to Day and will proceed to Spithead to morrow Morning her Provisions to be completed from one of the Line of Battle Ships at Spithead.

Hyana
 Fortune

I hope to have these two Ships at Spithead complete in all respects on Monday, as also the Tapageur Cutter

(Signed) Tho: Dye

State of the Equipment of the Ships under the com<sup>d</sup>. of Sir J. Rodney Dec. 10th 1779.