

Ld. Stormont
St. James's Dec 21. 1779.
<sup>m</sup>
40. p. 4. P.M.

3658

St. James's Dec 21. 1779
<sup>m</sup>
40 p. four. P.M.

I presume to inform your Majesty that I have just learnt and I think from pretty good authority, that since the news of Lexington's Repulse, the French are very loud in their complaints and reproaches of the Americans, and nothing can be more unpopular than the American Cause now is at Paris.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text in cursive script, possibly a letter or document fragment.]