My Dearest Son. Talking over with Col Taylor the present arrangement by which of course ~~me~~ some expences must fall upon me, which are most just to those of my Servants who would suffer by it. I thought it right send for Mr Mathias who is quite ~~affair~~ of ~~with~~ my affairs. to have an interview with Col Taylor who very kindly informed him of every thing. & as Mathias report to me appears not to coincide with Mr Perceval's provision for me, He will by my orders state to Mr P the difficulties which seem to arise upon that Subject to Morrow when I trust will give him a fair hearing.

I think it but justice to You who have been so very Liberal upon this Subject to make You acquainted with the Steps I have taken feeling there was no Time to be lost, & also being convinced that what is in Your Power to promote <sup>up</sup> it, You will with Yr Affection for me do what You can.

I beg to be understood that I do not mean to aser what is unreasonable, as You very well know that I am always desirous to pay my Servants myself. I send this by M<sup>r</sup> Mathias should you be at Liberty to see Him He will

obey Yr Order to know. I
