

The Queen to
The Prince Regent

My dearest Son. I inclose my Letter of Invitation to Charlotte which after You have perused it & approved of it You will send to Her. But I must just mention that the Princess's Birthday will be next Sunday & that it would be great Satisfaction to my Mind if You would give Orders to Lady de Clifford what She is to do on that Day, I am ignorant whether the Day is to be kept on the real Day or Monday, either of which She might go & pay Her Duty to Her Mother, & neither You nor myself be suspected to keep Her from The Prince which at the Present Time would be a remedy liable to be made.

I rejoiced to hear from Sr H. H. that Your Health has not essentially suffered from the Horrible Storm of Monday, & return You many Thanks for Yr attention in sending Him to Windsor where His advice was both wellcome & necessary for both Your Sisters Elyza & Sophia & I have the satisfaction to say that both now seem better for His prescriptions.

I will now only add my sincere wishes that You may soon be out of all Your difficulties & believe me Ever

My Dearest Son

Windsor

The 13th May 1812.

Your affectionate Mother & Sincere Friend

Charlotte
