My dearest Son. You will receive through the Hands of the Earl of Liverpool, ^{copies of} another Letter from the Princess of Wales, which She desired might be communicated to You, & with it also my answer to Her which only touches upon those Subjects which relate to myself & I ~~do hope~~ ^{do hope} that it will be found very mild & moderate, & therefore meet with approbation.

I shall not allow myself to make any further remark upon the Contents of the Princess's Letter leaving that to Y^r own Judgement, but I can not possibly pass over in Silence the very Indiscreet manner which is the most delicate word expression I can make use of in which She reproaches me for having acquiesced in Y^r wishes to have Charlotte established at Windsor, accusing me of being the cause that after Education is not properly followed up, which I can explain in no other way, than that She means, that My Love for You & Affection for the Child upon this Occasion is a matter of Im-prudence.

I have no that I an

There is one Satisfaction I feel at this moment, that You have quite the right on Your Side, & that pursuing the same Course You have happily done all just people will approve of it.
