

H. N. to H. North

3677

Queens House 27th 1779
25th p. 9. A.M.

It is very unpleasant to be detained untill so late an hour
as Mr North was yesterday in the House of Commons and by the conclusion to find the sole object intended by Opposition was to declaim; I scarcely remember an instance of so long a Debate and no Division.

Handwritten text in cursive script, likely a letter or document fragment, written on aged paper. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting it is bleed-through from the reverse side. The handwriting is dense and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading.
