

H. N. G. North.

3749

Lucas House Mar 18. 1780

on p. 8. A. M.

Lord North's account to Me of what had passed concerning Milborne Post had thoroughly convinced Me that Mr. Luttrell's complaint could solely turn out to his own disadvantage, therefore I never do not approve of the House having not come to the Resolution that the Charge against Lord North is ill founded and injurious, but let this be evaded by a previous statement, and I think Mr. Luttrell ought to have felt the indignation of the House.

[Faint, illegible handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.]

18 Mar 1780