Sir,

I had not the honor of receiving V^r.
Majesty's most gracious & affectionate letter the late last night, or else should certainly have answered it before this Evening. Permit me to express how extremely sensible I am, of the greatest attachment & kindness you ~~express~~^{profess} towards me, & allow me to assure you, it shall be my principal
-fel object thro' life to merit you, & to convince you how truly I remain, Sir,

Your Majesty's most dutiful and obedient Son & Subject, Windsor Castle.
August 15. 1780. George D
