Lord Ailesbury sends his Compliments to Colonel Cosby & wishes to prevent his having the trouble of calling in some more Place in consequence of a Message Mr. J. J. was desired to give him from L^d. A. - who sees Mr. Cosby at present: the Chief thing he had to tell Col. Cosby he knows perhaps already, viz. about a Letter the R^y has received sately from the Fleet of A. - in which the R^y expresses no small Anxiety about the Point of a certain being Commission to the Success of which Col. Cosby was so instrumental that L^d. A. has desired Lord North to do him all the Justice that is possible to the Fleet to whom the same in his immediate Letter of Thanks to him mentioned having received the being in question since Col. Cosby's Arrival in England.
