Apr 30 1783

The Duke of Portland has the honor of acquainting His Royal Highness, that he had the pleasure of receiving His Majesty's full & most ready approbation of Dr. Jackson as a Saviour to the Deanery of Christ Church in case the Bishop of Bristol shall incline to be translated to the see of Norwich. The Duke of Portland takes the liberty of giving His Royal Highness the earliest information of this possible & very probable event in consequence of having been told by Mr. Fox that Dr. Jackson had the honor of possessing a considerable share of His Royal Highness's good opinion.
