His Royal Highness having been informed by Mr Fox of the very unexpected Determination which His Majesty has thought proper to adopt, The Duke of Portland will not return His Royal Highness by a repetition or any description of a subject which The Duke of Portland has such particular reason to be satisfied at & to lament. — he only means to acquaint His Royal Highness that he has just done himself the honor of writing a note to His Majesty in which after very shortly expressing his concern at finding the Representation he submitted to His Majesty of none would be requisite the honor of paying his duty to His Majesty as soon as His Majesty shall think proper to order Him —
