Lord Ailesbury sends his Compliments to Sir Henry Cosby, & is oblig'd to him for the Satisfaction he receiv'd from perusing the enclosed, by which he has the Pleasure to find that the Madam has receiv'd the Lovers Thanks for his valuable Present, & for Majestys Acknowledgements for Henry Cosbys Service in that delicate Occasion. I sh<sup>d</sup> will trouble Sir Henry to enclose with his Letters for India, & with his best Wishes for a prosperous Voyage to & from that part of the World.
