My Dear Lord

Last Night only, I had the honor of your Lordship's letter of 7th with Dismission from the Prince of Wales's Service.

I must beg of your Lordship to present my humble Duty to the Prince of Wales, & to assure H.R.H. how sensible I have ever been, of his Kindness, & Protection, whilst I had the Honor of being in his Service. That my Attachment, & Duty to H.R.H. will ever be the first Object of my Life. & that I shall always be proud to have the Honor of serving so Good, & Gracious a Master.

All the World must approve this present measure, & none, I am sure, more, than us, H.R.H.'s Servants, who will (as I am,) be much flatter'd, by his Gracious Approbation of our Services. I have the Honor to be, My Dear Lord, with the Highest Regard & Respect, your Lordship's much oblig'd, John Kemey's Tynte.

P.S.

I shall leave this place tomorrow, & shall be in town on Monday, when I will have the honor of waiting on you.
