Towny Street May 3. 1787
50 West 11. J. M.

Sir,

In obedience to the Commands with which your Royal Highness was this day pleased to honor me, took the earliest opportunity of waiting upon the King with your Royal Highness's message. I am directed by His Majesty to acquaint your Royal Highness

That He receives with great Satisfaction the Expressions of your Royal Highness's Personal Sentiments towards His Majesty. The King considers himself as having conveyed thro the whole of his Correspondence his Readiness to assist in relieving your Royal Highness from the Embarrassments of your present situation, whenever He is enabled by sufficient Explanation to take any Steps with Propriety for that Purpose; And His Majesty thinks this Confirmation of the Uniform Tenor of his Sentiments cannot fail to remove any Doubts on the Point which it was the Object of Your Royal Highness's

Message to ascertain.

I have the honor to be,
with the utmost Respect and Submission

Sir,

Your Royal Highness;

most dutiful

and most devoted Servant

W. Pitt.
