Towning Street May 10th 1787.
20th part One Star

Sir,

I am honoured with your Royal Highness's Commands, and beg leave in the most respectful manner to assure your Royal Highness, that I have endeavoured to obey the King's Orders in the Examination of the Accounts furnished by your Royal Highness's Officers, with all the Dispatch which the Time required by them for H.

making out the necessary Abstract would admit. Previous to laying these Papers before the King, which I hope to have an Opportunity of doing in the Course of a few Hours; It is my wish to have the Result of them, as it appears to me, checked by your Royal Highness's Officers in order to prevent any Mistake; and I should also think it my Duty to submit th. to your Royal Highness's own Inspection
